

Nicola's Fudge

Campaign Design Overview
2025

New Zealand Taxpayers' Union

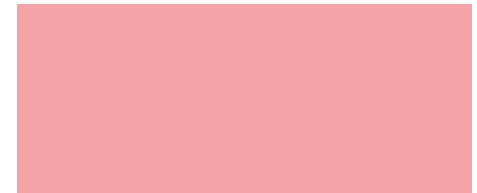

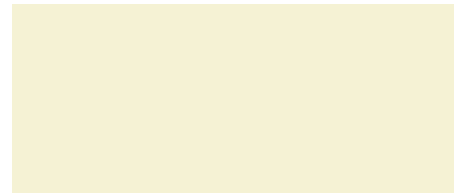

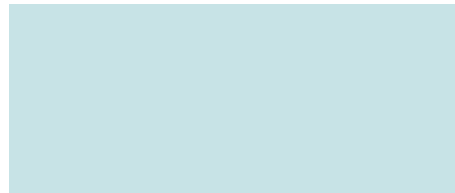

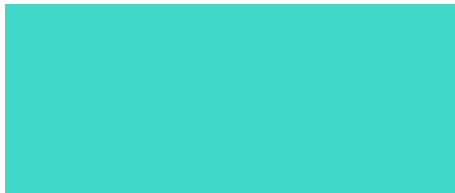

Campaign Overview

The Nicola's Fudge campaign was developed as a satirical political device to communicate fiscal messaging through familiar, everyday formats.

Designed to be approachable and shareable, the campaign centred on a packaged product that could be distributed at events and supported by print collateral and merchandise. The visual system was built to scale across physical formats while remaining bold, legible, and cost-effective.

Visual Identity

Design Rationale

- A playful, familiar product format was used to lower barriers to engagement and invite interaction in public settings.
- Humour and retro visual language allowed complex fiscal messages to be communicated in a way that was accessible without diluting intent.
- The visual system was designed to reproduce consistently across packaging, print, and merchandise while remaining cost-effective for physical distribution.

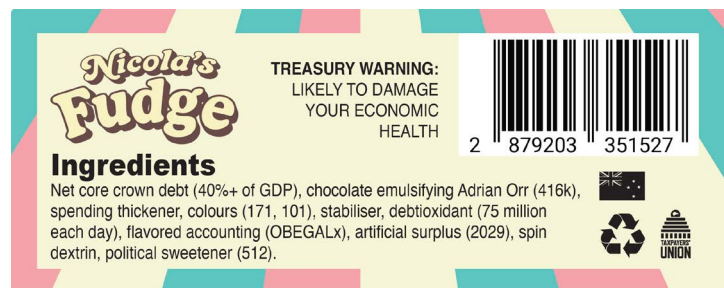

Product Range & Flavour Variants

Nicola's Fudge

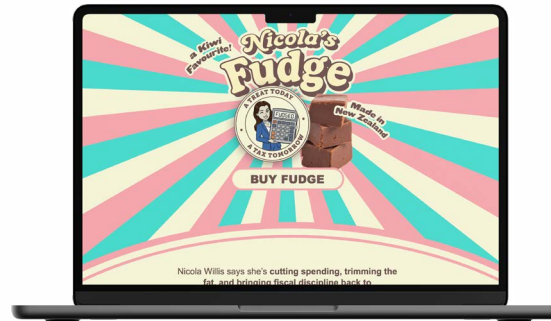

Illustration & Copy Detail

- Illustrated badges combine humour and recognisable economic metaphors to make abstract policy tangible.
- A retro visual language references nostalgic confectionery packaging, contrasting with contemporary political commentary.
- Copywriting balances satire with clarity, ensuring messages remain accessible at point of engagement.

Campaign Rollout

- Designed for public distribution
- Easily adapted across formats
- Visual humour carries across scale

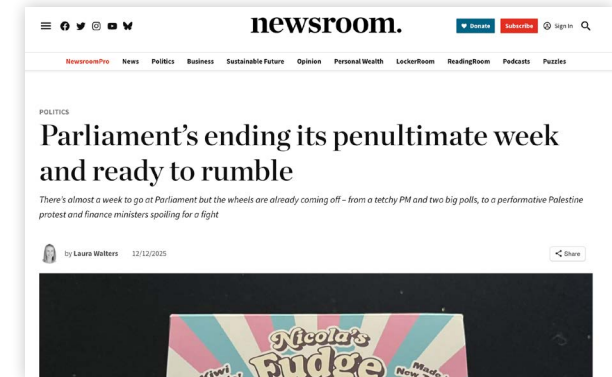

Print Collateral & Public Information

- Brochure designed to contextualise the satirical product and explain campaign intent
- Balanced humour with clarity to support public-facing distribution
- Visual language aligned with packaging to maintain recognition across touchpoints

Media Coverage

- Campaign assets featured across national news and broadcast media
- Satirical packaging used as a visual hook for wider policy discussion
- Earned media extended reach beyond physical distribution

Digital Campaign

nicolasfudge.nz

Video

Herald Now Reaction

Print Artwork

